

Job Title: Crane Technician

Ferndown Commercials Ltd

We understand that our customer's vehicles are a vital tool to their business or everyday life. This is why our main aim at Ferndown Commercials is to keep our customers on the road. We pride ourselves on pulling out all the stops to ensure your vehicle is back on the road as soon as possible, whether it's following a service or a breakdown.

The staff at Ferndown Commercials Ltd are some of the most experienced and are constantly undergoing training, keeping up to date with all the latest changes ensuring the customer is always getting the very best service available.

Main Duties

- Carry out servicing and repair work to cranes as scheduled
- Attend to crane breakdowns as required.
- Driving and travelling across Southern England.
- Good technical knowledge and a high level of attention to detail.
- Good basic knowledge of hydraulics, electrics, and general crane operation.
- Complete any other tasks as required
- Fully equipped field-based van supplied
- Product training on Hiab cranes is provided

Skills

- Being able to work alone and independently
- Ability to follow instructions.
- Good communication skills
- Punctuality
- Methodical and organised
- Good concentration
- Able to work to strict deadlines
- Demonstrate a strong interest in cranes.

Hourly rate depending on experience – Minimum wages to £22.82 an hour.

Standard hours 8am to 5pm Mon to Friday. There is regular overtime mainly in the mornings as we are often required on customers site early.

Saturdays as and when required.

Overtime is paid at time and a half.